

ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH PRESENTS

2009 BAILEY LECTURE SERIES

DECEMBER 11, 12, & 13

The Rev. Michael Russell

is active in the theological life of the Episcopal Church as one of the leading non-academic interpreters of Richard Hooker, the foundational theologian of our Church. He has written and lectured extensively on Anglican Identity and has actually published Hooker's works in a paperback edition for seminarians.

“The Genesis and Genius of Anglicanism”

These lectures will bring a fresh light on the work of Richard Hooker and his role in crystallizing the reformation in England into what we know as Anglicanism. What Anglicanism is continues to be hotly debated in our present church councils, think tanks and blogs. These lectures will focus on the emergence of Anglicanism and its initial conditions in the later sixteenth century.

Friday, December 11th: 6:30 p.m. Opening Lecture & Compline (Church)

“Anglicanism Began with a Sermon:

An exploration of the emergent moment for our Anglican Identity. ”

8:00 - 9:00 p.m. Wine & Cheese Reception (Kinsolving Parish Hall)

Saturday, December 12th:

(8:30 – 9:00 a.m. Check-In in Gregg House Foyer & Library)

Lecture I (9:00 – 10:30 a.m. Kinsolving Parish Hall)

“Revelation and Identity:

There is more to Anglican understanding of revelation than you might suspect. ”

Lecture II (11:00 a.m.– 12:30 p.m. Kinsolving Parish Hall)

“Think like an Anglican: Our Anglican way of evaluation and interpretation ”

Lecture III (1:30 – 3:00 p.m. Kinsolving Parish Hall)

“Forming a Christian Society: Politics and Religion for polite conversation. ”

Sunday, December 13th:

Guest Preacher at the 9:00 & 11:15 a.m. services in the Church

Q&A with The Rev. Michael Russell

(10:10 a.m. Kinsolving Parish Hall) Coffee & Donuts - No Lecture

Fr. Mike is an author and Rector of All Souls' Episcopal Church, Point Loma, California, in the Diocese of San Diego.

THE BAILEY LECTURES ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, FREE OF CHARGE
AND HELD AT THE ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH CAMPUS - 209 WEST 27th ST., AUSTIN, TX 78705 www.allsaints-austin.org